

NOW MAKE YOUR BETS

The Iowa Boys Are Feeling Well and Butte Must Look Out.

READY FOR THE FOOTBALL

To-Day's Game Promises to Be More Exciting Than Any That Has Been Played in the Northwest.

Butte, Sept. 14.—Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the fifth football game of the series to determine the championship of the West for the present year will be played at the new football grounds between the crack team of Iowa, that of the Iowa state agricultural college, and the unbeaten team of Butte. Following this game, Butte will meet on her own grounds Seattle, Tacoma, Denver, university of Nebraska and university of Minnesota, and any other team which may acquire fame in the fall and winter, or at least of tie-in, the score. Notwithstanding the fame of the Portland team, but little money was wagered on the result, there being a universal feeling that the home team could not be beaten on their own grounds. In the coming game with Iowa, however, there is nothing to indicate where the Buttes have any the better of it. The betting has been split, and the reputation of the visitors has had the effect of bringing the odds down from 100 to 60 on Butte, to even money, and in some cases odds have been offered and taken against Butte. The stone wall rush line of the local team will for the first time meet a line of equal weight and more established reputation, and it may be that the seasoned players of Iowa's pride will use the Butte pits for a carpet before the game is over.

Some very nobby turnouts are looked for to-morrow. The lively stables report a dearth of horse flesh and available rigs, everything having been engaged some time since.

As the visiting team will have to take the 4 o'clock Union Pacific train for home, Butte people will be denied the usual pleasure of "taking care" of the players after the game. Perhaps, however, they may be induced to stop over a day or so.

The Iowa team arrived this morning, and are stopping at the Butte hotel. Their manager, J. H. Myers, says that all of his men are in excellent condition, and ready to play the game of the season. Following is the line-up of the two teams:

BUTTE.
Manager—D. G. Silvers. Colors—Crimson and cream.
King, G. W. 148 L. E.
Blair, William 148 L. T.
Hooper, James H. 148 L. G.

IOWA.
Manager—J. H. Myers. Colors—Black, gold and silver.
Woodburn, O. P. 175 L. E.
Hammond, J. 175 L. T.
Blanche, A. 175 L. G.
Wilson, E. W. 175 R. E.

Wilson, J. W. 150 F. B.
Substitutes—
French, F. C. 160
Lyford, F. R. 165
Rice, T. L. 155
The visiting team averages considerably over 175 pounds in playing clothes, and is by far the heaviest that has ever stepped upon the field in Butte.

The field officials will be W. H. Armstrong, referee; T. L. Rice, umpire; W. W. Dixon, Jr., line-man, and Dr. H. J. McDonald, first surgeon.

It is a matter for congratulation that the recent showers have effectually laid the dust, and a repetition of the sand storms of the last game need not be feared. Nor will the spectators be compelled to wear walking boots for the soil of the flat is very sandy, and rain filters through without collecting in pools or making mud.

The cornhuskers had heard so much about Butte water that they brought a supply of Iowa water with them in two large milk cans, which they use exclusively. From what they had heard of Butte water they were afraid that it would weaken them, even if it did not make them so sick that they would be unable to play.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Live Stock.
Chicago, Sept. 14.—There were not enough cattle to make a market to-day, only about 500 head being received. Thus far this month the demand for well finished corn cattle has continued active. To date this season's receipts of western foot up 18,000 head, an increase of 7,000 head over the same time last year. These cattle are selling well and exporters are buying 1,200 to 1,400-pound Montanas around $1.00.

Hogs.—Only about 9,000 fresh and state hogs were offered in the market and the local and shipping demand was large enough to absorb the supply at firm prices, quotations being much the same as yesterday.

Wheat Market.

Wheat was less active to-day and decidedly lower. Cables came higher, the natural reflex of our strength yesterday, but outside of this all the conditions were bearish.

The Latest From South Africa.
Late advices from Johannesburg and other South African mining camps show that valuable properties are being constantly located.

Experienced miners, machinists, engineers, carpenters and timber men are always in demand at good wages, while fruit growing offers lucrative occupation to parties understanding the business and desiring to enter that field of industry.

Johannesburg, a city of 60,000 souls, is an excellent market for the various kinds of fruit, which may be obtained in abundance in the vicinity of the town, at small cost. The only fruit growers in the country, being an indolent class, do not supply the demand.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

Livingston, Sept. 13.—John Snoddy, committed to the Warm Springs asylum from this city four months ago, was discharged from the institution Thursday and returned to Livingston to-day. Though still rather eccentric, to-day, he appears rational enough to be allowed to go at large. Immediately upon his arrival here he hunted up the Standard's correspondent and wanted an expose made of what he termed "the inhuman treatment of insane patients at the asylum." He said that the attendants were brutal and cited an instance where a crazy man sent up from Butte was kicked into insensibility, dying the next day. Another patient was given the hot water treatment and so badly scalded that he died from the effects thereof. These statements, however, can be taken with a grain of allowance, as Snoddy's mind is not as bright as it should be. For instance, he said: "I am a citizen of Great Britain, although a resident of the United States, and if the English government knew to what indignities one of its loyal subjects had been subjected in an American asylum, a satisfactory explanation would have to be made or else there would be a circus." Snoddy acknowledges that he was insane when committed, but says that he recovered his mental equilibrium in about three weeks. He says that he went crazy because he was "three seas over," when he met two gamblers, who enticed him into the Chinese laundry on lower Main street and filled him full of opium. He says he hit the pipe until he lost consciousness, and didn't come to until three weeks, when he found himself in the asylum, and then his memory came back to him.

C. H. Savage has resigned his position as county jailer for the purpose of securing more congenial employment. His successor has not yet been named, but it is believed that Sheriff Young will either appoint his brother, Alex. Young, or else ex-Chief of Police Mitchell.

Charles Nathurst is still very much broken up over the suicide of his fiancée, Miss Beattie Wolliver, of Sappington, and has resigned his position as chief clerk in Roadmaster Cummings' office, in this city. His successor is C. A. Parker of the storekeeper's force.

C. B. Mendenhall, proprietor of the Hunter's Hot Springs health resort, has a force engaged in making some decided improvements to the property, among them being the erection of a new bath house and plunge.

Through the courtesy of Manager McManis of the Western Union telegraph office, the people of this city were furnished with bulletins of the great American-English yacht race.

H. T. Bingham, proprietor of the Postoffice news store, has discontinued his newsboy service on the Park branch passenger train for this season, and will give his entire attention to his business in this city.

Fred Reising, employed at the Broughton ranch east of the city, sustained a fracture of his left leg Thursday. His horse fell with him. Dr. Alton attended him.

Attorney M. R. Wilson has been commissioned a notary public.

Attorney M. D. Kelly has gone to Red Lodge to engage in the practice of his profession.

Miss Ida Kennedy of Chicago, has accepted a position in the military department of Thompson Bros. store.

BILLINGS NEWS.

The Yellowstone Fair Will Open Tuesday—District Court Notes.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.
Billings, Sept. 14.—The Yellowstone fair will open next Tuesday, and promises to be of more than usual interest. Though the frosts of last week have somewhat damaged vegetation, yet there will be no lack of exhibits. The purses for the races are necessarily small, but local horsemen are taking a great deal of interest, and it is intended that the best horse shall win in every instance, as all "monkey work" will be vigorously punished by the management. The Crow Indians will be out in greater force than ever, and as their races are always "for blood," they will make a strong attraction.

Major Watson, the Indian agent, has written to Secretary O'Donnell of the Fair association, requesting space for an exhibit of vegetables raised by the Crows.

District court has been in session all this week, and a number of cases have been disposed of, none of them of any general interest.

An effort is being made to have the wagon bridges over the Yellowstone at Billings and Columbus, which are owned by private parties, purchased by the county and made free. Applicants to value them have been appointed according to law, and it is hoped that the toll features will soon be abolished.

On Monday Traveling Auditor Calvin checked out C. A. Whipple as agent of the Northern Pacific, and installed his successor, T. Hogan, who arrived here from St. Paul. Mr. Whipple resigned some months ago, and has been anxiously awaiting the arrival of his successor. His departure from Billings is very greatly regretted by a host of friends. He returns to Townsend, where he has business interests, but will take a few months' vacation in the mountains before resuming work.

The city council has engaged George K. Reeder of Helena to prepare plans and specifications for a thorough system of sewerage for the city, and he is expected here in a few days to commence operations.

R. B. Thompson of Highfield, was in the city this week. He has sold 1,700 sheep at $2.50 per head to A. E. Andrews of Fargo, N. D., who intends to fatten them on Dakota wheat stubble for the next 60 days before shipping them to Chicago. It is probable that a good many of Montana's surplus sheep will be taken by Dakota as the price of grain is so low that it will pay better to feed it than to sell. Mr. Andrews states that good oats down in his neighborhood bring only 13 cents a bushel.

E. S. Tutt has sold his herd of cattle to E. B. Masters of Rochester. They number about 400 head and the price was $22 per head. Mr. Tutt some years ago purchased a small farm in California, on which he has now a fine lemon grove, which claims his attention.
